ORDER

Before the Court is a “Motion To Answer The Complaint File On June 25, 2013 By The Defendant” [Doc. 25] filed by pro se Plaintiff Jimmy “James” Swann (“Plaintiff”). It is impossible to construe this pleading as a motion of any sort. Instead, the filing appears to be the initial disclosures that Plaintiff stated he mailed prior to the hearing held in this matter on July 12, 2013. The Clerk is DIRECTED to term the motion and note in the docket entry that the Court has construed this filing to be Plaintiff’s initial disclosures.

Defendant is DIRECTED to file a notice within seven days to inform the Court whether he is withdrawing his Motion to Dismiss [Doc. 23] now that Plaintiff has made his initial disclosures.

SO ORDERED.

ENTER.
